

MISHIMA GUIDE BOOK

MISHIMA is enveloped by the beautiful greenery of the Western Hakone Mountains
and is located in eastern Shizuoka
Prefecture and at the entrance to Fuji Hakone Izu National Park. Its natural splendor is enhanced by the clear spring water that flows from nearby Mt. Fuji.

In MISHIMA, well known as a doorway to Mt. Fuji, Hakone and Izu, there are many historical spots as well as areas for viewing natural beauty, including registered cultural assets and historical monuments.

The Mishima "Grand Shrine" has been an attraction for countless foreign visitors during the past centuries. Today, the gate into the sacred grounds is a portal into "Old Japan", behind which exist not only traditional customs but also each building, pond, flagstone and tree conveys a sense of ancient history.

Der "Große Schrein" von Mishima ist seit Jahrhunderten für zahllose ausländische Besucher ein Anziehungspunkt gewesen, darunter so berühmte wie Kämpfer und Siebold.

Heute ist das Tor in den heiligen Bezirk auch eine Pforte in das Alte Japan, hinter der nicht nur uralte traditionelle Bräuche, sondern jedes Gebäude, jeder Teich, jede Steinplatte und jeder Baum ein Gefühl von Geschichte vermitteln.

You can take a tour of Mishima with this map.

The clear stream of Genbe River gives you a cool feeling, particularly in summer. Through the year, the water temperature is constant around 15°C. In summer, I often see children playing with high spirits in the water. It is loved as a natural pool for children.

源兵衛川河水清澈水温清凉, 全年的平均水温在 15°C 左右。夏季赤脚踏河, 清凉的水温瞬间就消除了炎热夏天带来的烦恼, 孩子们更可下河畅游, 正所谓是天然游泳池。

Rakujuen is one of my favorite places in Mishima. I love the colorful flowers and leaves in Rakujuen. I think it is worth a visit.

Rakujuen मिशिमा में मेरे पसंदीदा स्थानों में से एक है। मुझे Rakujuen के रंगीन फूल और पत्तियाँ बहुत पसंद हैं। मेरे हिसाब से यहाँ कम से कम एक बार जाना चाहिए।

Wow,
that's peachy.

The view of MISHIMA from the top of a mountain is beautiful. All that I love about MISHIMA is in the presence of Mt. Fuji, the clear and pure water and warm climate similar to my hometown. I love Mishima a lot.

Mt. Fuji 富士山

We have various views of Mt. Fuji from Mishima. From the #2 bus terminal, you can take the bus bound for KAWAGUCHIKO to Mt. Fuji. The trip is approximately two hours. In summer, there is a bus from Mishima bound for Fujinomiya fifth station of Mt. Fuji.

I am living in Mishima for almost a year. When it is cloudless, it is simply wonderful to wake up, go to the window and watch the splendor of this mountain covered by a brilliant layer of snow. The view of Mount Fuji is a privilege for the people that live in Mishima.

Although I have only lived in Mishima for a few short months so far, the town has managed to make a strong impression on me. Working as a graduate student, the ability to find space to relax is very important, and Mishima's laid-back atmosphere is perfect for unwinding. In addition to the sightseeing areas you can find here, there's also a wealth of culinary attractions. Personally, I'd recommend trying the unagi in Mishima; it's the best I've ever had!

Fukutaro 福太郎

Fukutaro is a rice cake made on the basis of the Shinto ritual, "Otaue Shinji" at Mishima Taisha Shrine. Fukutaro is said to bring happiness to those who eat it.

Mishima Croquettes みしまコロッケ

This delicious croquette is made from special potatoes grown on the western slopes of the Hakone Mountains.

I'm so delicious now!
